

To enroll in the Intune free trial subscription, first navigate to the Intune sign-up page. You'll then provide your email address and follow the prompts to either sign in with an existing Microsoft account or create a new one. After creating an account, you'll need to verify your phone number and provide details about your organization. Finally, you'll add a payment method (which won't be charged until you purchase a subscription) and then you can begin using Intune. [1, 2]

Detailed Steps:

1. Go to the Intune Sign-up Page: Visit the official Intune free trial sign-up page.
2. Enter Email and Sign In/Create: Provide your email address and either sign in with an existing Microsoft account or create a new one.
3. Account Details: Enter your name, phone number, company information, and region.
4. Phone Verification: You'll receive a verification code via SMS to confirm your phone number.
5. Username and Domain: Create a username and domain name for your Intune trial (e.g., yourname.onmicrosoft.com).
6. Payment Method: Add a valid payment method for verification purposes (it won't be charged during the trial).
7. Account Activation: Once the account is set up, you'll receive an email with your account information and be able to log in to the Intune admin center. [1, 2]
